the court that the petitioner at the time of filing her petition was a bona fide resident of the county of Gray-ahoga & for more than one year prior thereto was a resident of the State of Ohio. Notice of the pendency of the petition having been published according to law, it here proved to the court - the charges of gross neglect of duty - adultery have been proved to the court, & all the material allegations in the said petition have been fully substantiated by proof.

It is therefore ordered & decreed that the marriage contract heretofore existing between the said parties be & the same is hereby totally dissolved & held for naught - the parties forever freed from all obligations of the same. - It is further decreed that Louisa Snapp the wife of said marriage be under the exclusive control & management of Julia Ann Snapp the petitioner & that the said Defendant pay the costs herein to be taxed, or that execution issue as at law -
